Section of Law: RCW 42.17.080, & .090

Status: Investigation Complete

Note: If the Disposition shows “Pending,” the case has not yet been resolved and no finding on the allegations has been made.

Summary: A complaint was received from Kurt Fritts alleging that the Grays Harbor County Republican Party (GHCRP) received a $20,000 contribution from The Leadership Council on October 13, 2003, that was allegedly amended to reflect receipt of a $5,000 contribution on October 14, 2003. In addition, the GHCRP made expenditures for the 19th Legislative District Senate race, but failed to file the required C-3 and C-4 reports disclosing contributions received and expenditures made. The GHCRP were assessed a $500 penalty, of which $300 is suspended on the condition that the GHCRP commits no further violations of RCW 42.17 for a period of one year from the date of the order.

The following cases were dismissed with the concurrence of the chair during this period:

Asher, Dave--Case #03-160A (Re-opened); Investigator: Suemary Trobaugh

Date Received: August 21, 2003

Date Started: August 21, 2003

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.640

Status: Investigation Complete (Original case was dismissed on July 15, 2003, and subsequently re-opened on August 21, 2003 after receiving additional evidence.)

Summary: A complaint was filed by Lois Gustafson alleging that Dave Asher, a candidate for State Representative in 2002 from the 45th Legislative District, exceeded the 2002 contribution limits by accepting an in-kind contribution from Argosy Cruise Lines for a fund raising event that exceeded the $625 contribution limit for an election.

Disposition: This complaint was originally received March 20, 2003 and was dismissed with the concurrence of the Chair on July 15, 2003. It was initially found that on September 9, 2002, the David Asher campaign had a two-hour fundraiser on the MV Kirkland, an Argosy Cruise Lines vessel, with eighty people in attendance. The MV Kirkland remained docked for the duration of the fundraiser at Kirkland Marina, and the campaign did not use any catering or host beverage services from Argosy Cruise Lines. The campaign provided the food for the event, and those in attendance paid Argosy for their drinks at the cash bar. The President of Argosy Cruise Lines confirmed the fair market value of the use of the docked boat of $625, and provided written confirmation of the value to the Asher campaign on April 7, 2003. In addition, he stated to PDC staff that the $625 value of the moored boat was based on the past lack of use of the vessel on a Monday night, the fact that the boat remained moored during the entire two-hour event, and no catering services were used.

Based on new information provided to the Commission, the investigation was re-opened. We found the published Argosy Cruise Lines’ rates for chartering the M.V. Kirkland included a “stand-by rate,” which, according to testimony from the Argosy sales manager, is an amount assessed hourly for a boat remaining dockside after the client has been charged a cruise rate. There is no published rate for only using a boat dockside. Argosy sales representatives do not have a published dockside rate for moored events or a policy of providing dockside charters for free. Argosy was unable to provide documentation of similar activities, so staff concluded that the Argosy invoices provided did not represent common sales practices, nor did they reflect an accurate picture of past dockside sales. As a result, PDC staff was unable to use past sales practices as a measure for determining the value of using a moored vessel. Argosy employees testified that the sales staff has the authority to negotiate rates with clients, although they start with the published prices. The President of Argosy stated that he and the sales staff discount their product frequently in varying amounts depending on the facts and circumstances.

The Argosy invoices reflect the company’s internal sales policy, which allows the sales staff to negotiate rates with clients after starting from the published prices. Although the Asher event was valued according to the $250 stand-by rate for the vessel, testimony shows that this amount is only charged after a customer first pays a charter rate for a cruise, in this case $1,785. This amount was in excess of the $625 primary election campaign contribution limit by $1,160, but there was no evidence found suggesting that the Asher campaign or Argosy Cruise Lines intentionally exceeded the contribution limit. Mr. Asher immediately repaid $1,160 to Argosy Cruise Lines on January 12, 2004 when the over-limit contribution was brought to his attention by PDC staff. The campaign and Argosy Cruise Lines were cautioned to pay close attention to the contribution limit requirements in future election campaigns. Argosy Cruise Lines was cautioned to value moored usage of vessels at the going rate based on the published rates for the service being provided when determining the value of contributions.

Concerned Citizens for Better Government (CCBG) and Joseph Coomer, Treasurer, CCBG--#00-241; Investigator: Kurt Young

Washington Education Association—Case #01-002; Investigator: Lori Anderson

Date Received: August 15, 2000

Date Started: August 18, 2000

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.760

Status: Investigation Complete

Summary: A complaint was received from the Evergreen Freedom Foundation and public school employees alleging that the Washington Education Association (WEA) and Washington School Districts are in violation of RCW 42.17.680 and 42.17.760. The complaint alleges that Washington School Districts are in violation of RCW 42.17.680 by withholding dues and fees from employees' wages that are used by the WEA and the National Education Association (NEA) for contributions to political campaigns. The complaint also alleges that the WEA is violating RCW 42.17.760 by using agency shop fees for political contributions and expenditures without the affirmative authorization of non-members. The complaint was forwarded to the PDC by the Attorney General's Office following its receipt of the complaint from EFF. The complaint was filed with the Attorney General's Office and all County Prosecuting Attorneys requesting that an action be commenced in the courts to address the apparent violations of RCW 42.17. The complaint said that if an action were not commenced in court the complainant would seek appropriate legal and equitable relief pursuant to RCW 42.17. RCW 42.17.400(4) provides a 45-day time period before a complainant may take steps to initiate a citizen’s action in superior court.

Disposition: The Commission accepted a Stipulation of Facts, Violations and Recommendations, found that the Respondent committed an apparent violation of RCW 42.17.760, stipulated to as actual violations, and referred the matter to the Attorney General’s Office.

Thurston County Superior Court Disposition: The Attorney General’s Office filed suit in Thurston County, and the case went to trial in Thurston County Superior Court. The Thurston County Superior Court found the Respondent intentionally violated RCW 42.17.760, and assessed a total civil penalty of $400,000. The Washington Education Association has appealed that decision.

Permanent Offense, Permanent Offense Incorporated, Traffic Improvement Initiative Committee, and Tim Eyman—Case #02-281; Investigator: Kurt Young; (Also received 45-Day Letter of Complaint)

In addition, a “45-day letter of complaint” was filed by Richard A. Smith and Knoll Lowney, attorneys with Smith & Lowney, PLLC, representing Permanently Offended, with the Office of the Attorney General and the County Prosecutor’s Offices in King, Snohomish and Thurston counties against Permanent Offense, Permanent Offense, Inc., Traffic Improvement Initiative, Tim Eyman, Karen Eyman, and Suzanne Karr alleging violations similar to those outlined in the PDC complaint.

Disposition: A report to the Commission was presented at its special April 9,

Note: If the Disposition shows “Pending,” the case has not yet been resolved and no finding on the allegations has been made.

Commission meeting. The Commission found that the Respondent committed multiple apparent violations and referred the matter to the Attorney General’s Office.

National Education Association—Case #02-282; Investigator: Suemary Trobaugh; (45-Day Letter of Complaint)

Date Received: January 31, 2002

Date Started: February 6, 2002

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.040, .080, .090, .680 and .760

Status: Investigation Complete

Summary: On January 31, 2002, the Evergreen Freedom Foundation, Lowell Johnson, Carrie Riplinger, Susan Kobes and David Williams, through attorney Jeanne Brown filed a citizen’s action letter under RCW 42.17.400(4) with the Office of the Attorney General and the State of Washington’s County Prosecutors’ Offices. The complaint alleged violations by the NEA’s Ballot Measure/Legislative Crisis and Media Campaign Fund of 1) RCW 42.17.040 et. seq (failure to register as a political committee); 2) violations of RCW 42.17.680(3) (diverting a portion of an employee's wages or salaries for contributions to political committees without the written request of the employee); and 3) violations of RCW 42.17.760 (using agency shop fees paid by non members to influence an election without written authorization by the Individual). On February 6, 2002, the Office of the Attorney General officially notified the PDC that they were referring the matter to the PDC for investigation. PDC Staff completed a Preliminary Report of Investigation and prepared a memorandum to Commission members concerning Staff’s findings and recommendation.

Disposition: On April 9, 2002, the matter was on the Commission’s agenda as a report to the Commission. In light of the complaint the Evergreen Freedom Foundation filed against the NEA in Thurston County Superior Court on April 8, 2002 under provisions of RCW 42.17.400(4), the Commission accepted Staff’s recommendation that it take no action in this case. On August 23, 2002, Thurston County Superior Court Judge Paula Casey dismissed the lawsuit filed by EFF against NEA. Judge Casey’s dismissal was based on a decision by the WA State Court of Appeals in State ex rel. Evergreen Freedom Foundation v Washington Education Association, No. 25272-4-II, where the court stated that “Before the 10-day period¹ had passed after EFF’s second letter to the AG, the AG forwarded

¹ RCW 42.17.400 states: “The citizen action may be brought only if the attorney general...ha(s) failed to commence an action hereunder within forty-five days and after such notice and such person has thereafter further the allegations to the PDC for investigation...Because the AG acted before the end of the 10-day period, EFF could not bring a citizen’s action lawsuit under RCW 42.17.400...” By a unanimous vote, the Commission dismissed the allegations that NEA violated RCW 42.17.040 and 42.17.680.

On October 2, 2002, at a special Commission meeting, by a unanimous vote, the Commission dismissed the allegations that NEA violated RCW 42.17.040 and 42.17.680. By a unanimous vote, the Commission found multiple apparent violations of RCW 42.17.760 by the NEA when it used agency shop fees to make contributions or expenditures to influence an election or to operate a political committee without authorization from the employees. The Commission found that given the insufficiency of its penalty authority, in lieu of holding an enforcement hearing, the Commission referred the above referenced apparent violations to the Washington State Attorney General's Office for appropriate action pursuant to RCW 42.17.360 and .395 and WAC 390-37-100.

Concerned Citizens for Better Government (CCBG) and Joseph Coomer,

Hopkins, Hank/Environmental Materials Transport, LLC--Case #03-153;

Investigator: Sally Parker

Date Received: April 15, 2002

Date Started: April 19, 2002

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.105 & .120

Status: Investigation Complete

Summary: This case is related to PDC Case No. 02-296. Hank Hopkins as President of Environmental Materials Transport, LLC (EMTLLC) was added as a respondent by PDC staff alleging that Mr. Hopkins made contributions in excess of $5,000 within 21 days of the 2001 general election by contributing $20,000 to Don Wasson's political committee to support Des Moines City Council candidates Petersen, Benjamin and Steenrod. It was further alleged that Mr. Hopkins and EMT LLC concealed the source and amount of an initial $1,000 payment that was made to Don Wasson and his political committee to support the campaigns of Gary Petersen and Richard Benjamin. In addition, it is also alleged that Mr. Hopkins and EMT LLC concealed the source and amount of contributions that were made to Mr. Wasson's political committee totaling $20,000 that also supported the 2001 Council campaigns of Mr. Petersen, Mr. Benjamin, and Ms. Steenrod.

Disposition: An Enforcement hearing before the Full Commission was held on March 25, 2003. The Commission found multiple apparent violations of RCW 42.17.120 by the Respondents for concealing contributions used to benefit candidates in the 2001 Des Moines City Council election. Given the insufficiency of its penalty authority, the Commission referred the apparent violations to the Attorney General's Office for appropriate action.

NOTE: On July 29, 2002, King County Superior Court Judge Richard McDermott issued a Permanent Injunction in Washington Education Association v. PDC et al. against the PDC's distribution of, investigations concerning, and enforcement of certain provisions of the PDC's "Guidelines for School Districts in Election Campaigns" that were finalized by the PDC in August 2001. The Guidelines explain the PDC's interpretation of RCW 42.17.130. The Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law that were also entered by the superior court, along with the Permanent Injunction, raised questions about the constitutionality of RCW 42.17.130. The PDC filed an appeal from the Permanent Injunction with the Washington State Supreme Court, and also filed an Emergency Motion to Stay the Injunction Pending Appeal. On September 4, 2002, that motion was denied. As a result, the Permanent Injunction, and the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, remained in effect. The State Supreme Court heard this case after full briefing and arguments by the parties and has issued its written decision overturning the lower courts injunction.

Investigations for the following six cases alleging a violation of RCW 42.17.130 had been listed as “suspended” in previous compliance memo's pending the outcome of the litigation referred to above. The pending litigation has been resolved, and on January 13, 2004, the Commission instructed staff to re-activate its investigations of alleged violations of RCW 42.17.130. In future compliance memos, these six cases will be listed with the other cases as active investigations. In addition, a number of complaints alleging violations of RCW 42.17.130 were received during the time when investigations were under suspension, and those cases will also be listed in future compliance memos.
